School closings:

The AGM has stated that starting on Tuesday, March 17, all schools in Nunavut will be closed for three weeks because of Covid-19. This will be announced publicly tomorrow, Monday, March 16. Schools are being closed by the Chief Public Health Officer. They are closed for all staff as well. Teachers are allowed to go in if they want but should follow health protocols.

Will there be a directive on e-learning or homework packages? No.

ADM Request:

The ADM has asked the NTA to recommend to our members to stay in their communities during the closure. What does CE think of this? Yes, the NTA should send it out.

Motion to adjourn
